

Psalm 15

A psalm of David to sing and strum

O LORD, what man shall sojourn in Your tent,
Or who shall dwell upon Your holy hill?
The one who lives life in a blameless way
And always does that which is good and right!

The one who always speaks truth with his heart:
The one who does not slander with his tongue:
The one who does no evil to his friend
And tells no tales his neighbour to reproach.

The reprobate in his eyes is despised:
He honours all the ones who fear the LORD:
He keeps his oath, even to his own hurt:
He does not lend his money out for gain!

He does not take a bribe from any man
Against the innocent, to cause him harm:
The man who acts like this will be secure:
And he shall not be moved forevermore!
