

Psalm 115

Not unto us, O LORD, not unto us
But to Your name let us give glory now,
Because of Your great love and faithfulness:
Why should the nations say "Where is their God?"

Indeed our God is in the heav'ns above
And He can do whatever He desires:
Their gods are made of silver and of gold:
Their idols are the work of human hands!

For they have mouths, but yet they do not speak,
And they have eyes, but yet they do not see,
And they have ears, but yet they do not hear,
And they have noses, but they do not smell!

And they have hands, but yet they do not feel,
And they have feet, but yet they do not move,
And they cannot make any sound at all,
For they are lifeless and they do not breathe!

And those who make them will become like them
And so will anyone who trusts in them.
O Israel, trust in the LORD alone,
He is your help and shield, yes, He alone!

O house of Aaron, trust in God alone,
He is your help and shield, yes, He alone!
All you who fear the LORD, now trust in Him,
He is your help and shield, yes, He alone!

The LORD our God has kept us all in mind,
And He will bless us, for our God is kind,
And He will bless the house of Israel
And He will bless the house of Aaron too!

And may the LORD bless all those who fear Him.
The small together with the great as well,
And may the LORD add blessings unto you,
To you and to your children after you!

May you be blessed now by the LORD your God,
The Maker of the heavens and the earth:
The heavens are the heavens of the LORD:
The earth His gift to those of Adam's race!

The dead do not sing praises to the LORD,
Nor those who go down to the silent grave
But we ourselves will gladly bless the LORD:
From this time forth we'll praise Him evermore!

Versified by J.W.McMillan, 2 Roger Rd, Morphett Vale, SA, AUSTRALIA 5162